Summary: A cool poem I wrote for English class. Wadaya think?

The Arbiter

The Arbiter

He commands powerful forces that move at his will

The position of Arbiter he comes to fill

Silencing heretics, marines, flood and all,

Following whims of the Prophets until he chances to fall

Upon the truth of the Journey, the lies that were told

By the Prophets and Brutes, their betrayal so bold

So he bows to the will of Gravemind for now

The destruction of his race he will not allow

But the Demon is with him- in uneasy accord

To destroy the Prophets and Brutes that they both abhorred

The Journey a lie, the Great War is a farce

Answers for questions seem to be sparse

But the truth will be sought till the battle is won

Against Truth and his forces; till he is outdone

That is his oath; that is his pledge

Out of the lies may reality we dredge.
